Friends,

This Sunday marks our Nation's 245th birthday. As we celebrate with friends and family, I hope that you will join me in reflecting on what makes America so special, including our core tenets of liberty and freedom for all.

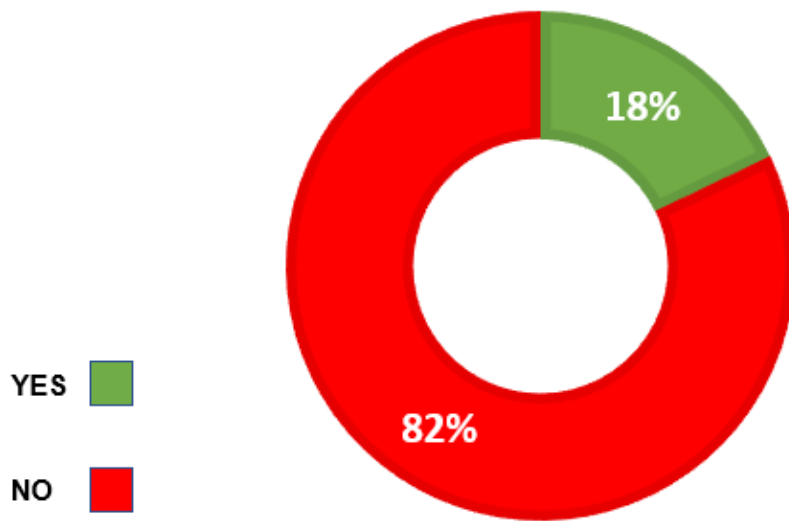

Recently, we have seen these principles come under attack like never before. From the crisis at our southern border, to Critical Race Theory being pushed in our classrooms, and censorship from Big Tech.

This week, Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy announced the creation of seven task forces to identify and study policy solutions to address these issues facing our country. I am proud to announce I'll be joining the Task Force focusing on Big Tech Censorship and Data. There is no greater threat to American's freedoms right now than Big Tech. Your right to speak freely in this country should be guaranteed, but unfortunately in the digital public square that is anything but assured.

Big Tech routinely censors speech and information they disagree with on a political basis. That happened repeatedly during the 2020 election, and it continues to this day. These platforms have abused their power for too long. As your member of Congress I will always stand up for you and fight to protect your liberties.

Have a wonderful Fourth of July—from my family to yours.

Recently, I asked YOU if the Border Crisis has gotten better. See what NC-09 said:

Now I want to hear from you about Big Tech's influence in our country:

Have you experienced Big Tech censorship?

Yes

No

I'm looking forward to hearing from you! As always, if I can ever be of assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out to my office at 202-225-1976 or at RepDanBishop@mail.house.gov.

Sincerely,

Dan Bishop
Member of Congress
